

National Technical Honor Society

The National Technical Honor Society is a non-profit student honor organization for outstanding students enrolled in occupational, vocational or technical programs. Organized in 1984, the first was established at H.B. Swofford Vocational Center. The organization has chapters in twenty-five states and was founded by Mr. C. Allen Powell and Mr. Jon H. Poteat of South Carolina.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this organization shall be: to promote the ideals of honesty, service, leadership, career development, and skilled workmanship among the technical students of America; to reward meritorious achievement in technical education; to encourage and assist technical students in their pursuit of educational and career goals; to develop a greater awareness within the American business, industry, and service communities about the talents and abilities of students engaged in technical education; to provide technical students with a greater awareness of the world of work.
